Foreman.

Cossining, N. Y., May & —Sisivatore Candido, an Italian murdurer, and the first person from Rockland County ever to be executed in Sing Sing, was put to death in the electric chair in the Selectic chair in the prison here to—day. Candido killed R. F. Balls, a foreman of the Rockland Trap Rock. Company, who had discharged him.

Dr. Edward Spitzka, prison physician, who to the past has invariably attended appentions, was absent, Attorney General Carmody having ruled that the hody of an executed prisoner must remain twenty-four hours before the autopsy is performed. This ruling was made because it had been charged that death did not follow the electrocution, but the pout-mortem operation.

Candido was led to the death room at Sin a, m, and fourteen minutes later was iffeless. He was accommanded by Bay. William E.
